

BUSINESS & ECONOMICS SOCIETY INTERNATIONAL

64 Holden Street • Worcester, MA 01605-3109, USA

August 2, 2004

To: Mr. Vassilis Pappas / Rodos Palace Hotel, Trianton Ave., 851 00 Rhodes, Greece
From: Helen & Demetri Kantarelis / B&ESI

Dear Mr. Pappas,

On behalf of the Business & Economics Society International, which recently held its 2004 Conference at Rodos Palace Hotel (July 19 to 22), we would like to express our heartfelt appreciation for the high quality of services that you so professionally offered to our members! In particular, thank you for the Executive rooms and all the equipment, thank you for the meals, the coffee breaks, the ambient and sparkling clean registration area!

The hotel's personnel - reception, restaurants and bars, technical and cleaning - were exceptional to say the least! We would like to thank everyone that came in touch with us; unfortunately, we do not remember all of their names but we would like to assure you that all of them deserve a raise! Here are some names, perhaps badly misspelled, that we have salvaged in our memory:

- Ioanna Megri and her associates
- Eftheria Spirou
- Eirini Pantamanoli
- Nikitas Kiris
- Eirini Tselepi
- Varvara Kouvara
- Apostolos Stagos
- Antonis Flevaris
- Giorgos Kampourakis
- Giorgos Thanasoulis
- Nikitas Gompos
- Dimitris Metaxis
- Manolis Orfanos
- Stelios Karambelias
- Anastasia Parisi

All of us who stayed at Rodos Palace have developed a deep longing to come back individually or through a future conference ... and we will, mark our word!

On behalf of the Business & Economics Society International,

Gratefully and Most Appreciatively,

Helen & Demetri Kantarelis